

Last Night I Had The Strangest Dream

By Ed McCurdy

Last night I had the strangest dream,
I ever had before.
I dreamed the world had all agreed to put an end to war.

I dreamed I saw a mighty room,
the room was filled with men and women.
And a paper they were signing said they'd never fight again.

And when the papers all were signed,
and a million copies made,
They all joined hands, and bowed their heads
And grateful words were said.

And the people in the streets below were dancing 'round and 'round, And guns and swords and uniforms were scattered on the ground.
