

THE WORLD IS OUR CLASSROOM

From Live and Learn and Pass it ON

H. Jackson Brown

I've learned that....

- Most of the things I worry about never happen. Age 64
- Every great achievement was once considered impossible. Age 47
- You can't hide a piece of broccoli in a glass of milk. Age 7
- If there were no problems there would be no opportunities. Age 19
- It doesn't cost anything to be nice. Age 66
- The important thing is not what others think of me but what I think of myself. Age 38
- The simplest task can be meaningful if I do it in the right spirit. Age 72
- In every face-to-face encounter, regardless of how brief, we leave something behind. Age 45
- Whenever I decide something of kindness, I usually make the right decision. Age 66
- If you spread the peas out on your plate, it looks like you age more. Age 6
- Regardless of color or age, we all need the same amount of love. Age 37
- Education, experience and memories are the three things no one can take away from you. Age 67
- Motel mattresses are better on the side away from the phone. Age 50
- Simple things are often the most satisfying. Age 63
- If you want to cheer yourself up, you should try cheering up someone else. Age 13
- Successful living is like playing the violin – it must be practiced daily. Age 70
- If you laugh and drink soda pop at the same time, it will come out your nose. Age 7
- A sunroof is worth the extra cost. Age 29
- Optimists live longer than pessimists. That's why I am an optimist. Age 84
- Happiness is like perfume: you can't give it away without getting a little on yourself. Age 59
- When someone hurts your feelings, it's unimportant unless you persist in remembering it. Age 68
- There is no elevator to success. You have to take the stairs. Age 48
- If you smile at people, they will almost always smile back. Age 81
- Homemade Toll House cookies should always be eaten while still warm. Age 29
- We grow only when we push ourselves beyond what we already know. Age 53
- Never underestimate the potential and power of the human spirit. Age 82
- Everyone has something to teach. Age 51
