

Whether we call it education, re-education, counseling, guidance, remediation, conditioning, rehabilitation - any process that helps a child lose some of his feelings of helplessness and that to a greater or lesser extent, helps him attain greater mastery of self and life situations is therapy.

Carl Fenichel, 1966